

my.UChicago

New Face, New Place

in the Academic Information System

Better Links Better Mobile More Intuitive

In May 2016, my.UChicago will be refreshed by the new Academic Information System.

- Online course requests for College students will be made through the AIS Pre-Registration link.
- Financial Aid will provide more robust information that is easier to navigate.

For details, visit ais.uchicago.edu.
